THE YUCCA INN SINCE 1934

Two years after Hwy138 was completed, Mabel & William Beekley built The Yucca Inn on what was part of an original 640 acre homestead. Mr. Beekley had been a truck driver and was one of the first to see the potential for desert travel, so he built a gas station to service the ever increasing car and truck travel. They soon added a small eating area as well as a small convenience store, the forerunner to the current Mini-Marts. Mrs. Mabel Beekley not only helped her husband with his trucking business in Los Angeles with his accounting, but largely managed & operated The Yucca Inn by herself. Maxine Lyons, Mrs. Beekley's Daughter, recalls the "Grapes of Wrath" situation as the desperate people came through Hwy 138 from Oklahoma and other areas seeking fortunes in Sunny California. In World War II, The Yucca Inn was so busy with Army convoys the family built another restaurant in West Cajon Valley. The Yucca Inn has been in business almost continually since 1934.
